Recognizing National Indigenous History Month and National Indigenous Peoples Day

In Canada, June is National Indigenous History Month and June 21 is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is a time for Canadians to celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures, and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit, and Metis peoples.

Learning about Indigenous Peoples is a key step in building a successful path to reconciliation. In doing so, we at the port authority strengthen our ability to build more meaningful relationships with local First Nation communities.

This month, the port authority is holding an employee event to recognize and celebrate the cultures and contributions of Indigenous Peoples of Canada. The event will include music, performances, and important messages from special guests who will be joining us from Musqueam Indian Band, Squamish Nation, Tsleil-Waututh Nation, and Tsawwassen First Nation. In addition to other internal learning opportunities, we are also sponsoring local National Indigenous Peoples Day events, including Musqueam Indian Band, the Tsawwassen First Nation, and Surrey's National Indigenous Peoples Day Celebration and Wellness Event hosted by Semiahmoo, Katzie, and Kwantlen First Nations.

Roberts Bank Terminal 2 updates

Species at Risk Act-compliant Fisheries Act Authorization application update

In consultation with First Nations, we are advancing our application for a Species at Risk Act (SARA)-compliant Fisheries Act authorization (FAA) for the Roberts Bank Terminal 2 Project. In the coming weeks, we will be sharing the full draft application with First Nations for review. This is a result of many years of consultation, knowledge sharing, and collaboration, and we are grateful to First Nations for their meaningful input and involvement. We have revised this version of the application to reflect First Nation comments received over the past year on draft sections, as well as through meetings and workshops. We have highlighted changes for ease of review and are responding directly to Nations on their feedback.

Following First Nations' review of the full draft application, we will submit the revised final application to Fisheries and Oceans Canada in approximately September 2024.

Update on the western sandpiper follow-up program

To monitor the potential effects of the project on western sandpipers and biofilm (a layer of predominately organic substances that coats many intertidal mudflats and is eaten by western sandpipers), we are developing the western sandpiper follow-up program, per federal project conditions #10.4 and #10.5.

To advance this program, we developed the western sandpiper follow-up program monitoring design in 2023, including the first three study component designs—salinity, biofilm availability, and western sandpiper diet—in consultation with First Nations, regulators, and external experts. Comments received during consultation have been considered and integrated into the revised documents, which have since been provided to the Impact Assessment Agency of Canada for the independent scientific body's review.

We are now developing the remaining study component designs, including energy intake, foraging distribution and intensity, and abundance. Drafts of these study component designs will be made available for review by First Nations, regulators, and external experts in the summer or fall of 2024.

Did you know?

We have been conducting monitoring programs focused on western sandpipers, biofilm, and salinity at Roberts Bank for more than 10 years, with participation from First Nations during field work. In spring 2023, we carried out more field work and conducted a pilot study to test the feasibility of using drones to count and map western sandpipers' droppings. This data—along with consultation feedback from First Nations, Environment and Climate Change Canada, and international experts—is helping to develop the western sandpiper follow-up program.

Sharing the results of the crab baiting away pilot study

In response to feedback from Musqueam Indian Band concerning the potential for crab injury and mortality due to physical handling during pre-construction salvaging, we undertook a crab baiting away pilot study in spring 2023. The objective was to determine whether Dungeness crabs can be attracted and kept away from construction areas using bait alone—without trapping—to reduce handling. The study was collaboratively designed with First Nations, and we are grateful for the knowledge, input, and experience shared with us. The results of this study will inform whether this methodology can be used as a construction mitigation measure during construction as an alternative to a traditional salvage, per federal project condition #7.6.

At multi-Nation workshops in May 2024, we shared a presentation on this study and sought input and feedback. We will be updating the crab baiting away pilot study report to reflect further feedback from First Nations and will be including it as an appendix in the full draft SARA-compliant FAA application for review. We look forward to any additional feedback you may have before the final application is submitted.

Port authority updates

Updates on the ECHO Program

Launched by the port authority in 2014, the Enhancing Cetacean Habitat and Observation (ECHO) Program is a world-leading, regional collaborative initiative to better understand and reduce the cumulative effects of commercial shipping on at-risk whales off B.C.'s southern coast.

In 2023, the ECHO Program's voluntary measures reduced underwater noise by about one-half in key areas of importance to the whales and reduced strike risk by up to about one-third. The program also saw all-time-high participation rates, with operators on 87% of all large commercial ship transits voluntarily reducing their speed or moving away from key areas of SRKW critical habitat.

Recent announcements:

- April 2024: the port authority published the 2023 annual report for the ECHO Program
- May 2024: the Government of Canada renewed a Species at Risk Act conservation agreement with the port authority and industry partners for five years, which formalizes the role of the ECHO Program and partners, and will provide $3.2 million over two years to the port authority to continue the ECHO Program (see photo below)
- June 2024: the ECHO Program launched its eighth season of large-scale threat reduction measures to support the recovery of at-risk whales like the endangered SRKW

We thank the ECHO Program's many partners and advisors from across government, the marine transportation industry, First Nations communities, and environmental groups in Canada and the U.S. With their ongoing support—and the voluntary participation of more than 100 marine transportation organizations—the ECHO Program is continuing to help create quieter and safer oceans for at-risk whales.

About Robert Banks Terminal 2

Led by the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority, Roberts Bank Terminal 2 is a future marine container terminal in Delta, B.C. that will deliver timely capacity to meet Canada's rapidly growing trade needs and provide critical supply chain support. The project was approved by the federal government in April 2023, received an environmental assessment certificate from the provincial government in September 2023, and requires other regulatory approvals and permits before construction can begin.

Medical Transportation Update

Health and Family Services respectfully asks members to give us a minimum of one week's notice when requesting assistance with medical transportation, particularly those without personal transportation options or family support. This adjustment is intended to support the department in effectively coordinating transportation requests and maintaining seamless daily operations. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated as we work to ensure a smooth process for all involved. In situations with extenuating circumstances, HFS will make every effort to provide the necessary support. Please reach out to Hiral Patel for more information at (604) 908-3015

Welcoming our New Foot Care RN, Catilina!

She is a Fraser Health foot care RN who will be on TFN lands THE FIRST MONDAY of every month!

Please book an appointment through Hiral Patel at 604 908 3015

How to book with Dr. Shelly Eckland Jetzer

Dr. Jetzer has a clinic in the harvest drive medical building and TFN members are welcome to book an appointment with her at this location or they can see her on lands.

She will be on TFN Lands Monday and Thursday Mornings with appointment times starting at 9am to 11am.

Members need to provide care card number, address, and contact information to Hiral by calling or texting 604-908-3015 to book an appointment.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to HSS at TFN. This is a new and exciting learning process for us all and we appreciate your patience and cooperation.

DR. JANA DAVIDSON

Dr. Jana Davidson had the privilege of growing up as an uninvited settler of mixed European (primarily Scottish) ancestry, in Treaty Eight Territory in the traditional and ancestral lands of the Dunne-za First Nations in the community now known as Fort St. John, BC. She is a daughter, sister, spouse, and mother. She is incredibly grateful to reside now, with her spouse, as an uninvited settler in the ancestral and traditional lands of the Tsawwassen First Nation

A bit About Jana

Jana is currently the chief medical officer of BC Children's Hospital, and BC Women's Hospital + Health Centre and had the privilege of leading the hospitals through the COVID-19 pandemic. She is a child and adolescent psychiatrist and a clinical professor in the Department of Psychiatry at the University of British Columbia (UBC).

Under Jana's leadership as psychiatrist-in-chief at BC Children's Hospital (2008-2019)

the mental health program grew significantly including the establishment of the Health Literacy (www.keltymentalhealth.ca; www.foundrybc.ca) and Compass (a provider support program for those caring for children and youth with mental health or substance use concerns) programs.

In addition to her new work with the Tsawwassen First Nations, Jana is a consulting child and adolescent psychiatrist with the Tele-psychiatry Outreach Psychiatry Program (TOPS) serving communities from Prince Rupert to Vanderhoof in northwestern BC.

Dear TFN members and residents:

This is a reminder that Stage 1 watering restrictions will be in effect from May 1 until October 15, 2024 as outlined in Metro Vancouver's Drinking Water Conservation Plan.

<https://metrovancover.org/services/water/Documents/drinking-water-conservation-plan.pdf>

Stage 1 comes into effect automatically each year to manage the use of drinking water during periods of high demand, water shortages, and emergencies.

Reducing lawn watering remains the most effective way to ensure we are using our drinking water wisely during the summer months when demand is highest and rainfall is lowest. One morning per week provides adequate watering time to maintain a healthy lawn and achieve further water use reductions. Watering trees, shrubs and flowers is permitted any day of the week.

Successful conservation across the region will help us to continue to deliver drinking water to the increasing number of people who call Metro Vancouver home. Additionally, sustainable lawn care and landscaping practices can help residents prepare for changing weather patterns, to continue to enjoy their green spaces.

Notice of Work

Tsawwassen Foreshore Fieldwork: MAY – JULY 2024

Field work for the Coastal Flood Risk Adaptation Strategy feasibility study will be taking place over the next several months. This work will include assessments of the breakwater and sea dikes, plant and environmental surveys as well as Geotechnical testing. Geotechnical testing will occur on Tsawwassen Lands north of Deltaport Way and on TFN owned property along River Road.

This field work will inform the writing of a report that will be used to help guide the community in deciding what Coastal Flood Risk Adaptation Strategy TFN should follow to mitigate the risk from sea level rise caused by climate change.

ALL fieldwork will take place during regular office hours;
Monday to Friday between 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM.

Thank you for your cooperation.

CALL FOR STATEMENT OF INTEREST

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE: REAL ESTATE

About Us:

Tsawwassen First Nation (TFN) is a proud Coast Salish nation south of the Fraser River along the Salish Sea. TFN is a modern treaty First Nation under the terms of a Final Agreement with Canada and British Columbia that became effective in 2009. The Tsawwassen First Nation Final Agreement is the first modern urban treaty in British Columbia, and the first to be negotiated through the BC Treaty Commission process.

TFN is now going through a period of revival and renewal as we plan our future and work towards our goal of becoming a strong, self-sufficient and sustainable First Nation for present and future generations. With a land base of 1,800 acres (724 hectares), TFN Lands are no longer “reserve” lands under the Indian Act; TFN owns its lands in fee simple and operates within the BC Land Title system.

Role Summary

TFN is seeking to appoint a new member to the Economic Development Advisory Committee. The committee advises and makes non-binding recommendations to the Economic Development Department, TFN Chief Administrative Officer, and the board of directors of the TFN Economic Development Corporation on matters regarding TFN economic development. This role requires expertise in real estate and a robust network within the industrial development market of the Lower Mainland. Residency south of the Fraser River is preferred. This role is a remunerated position.

Key Sectors and Industries:

Industrial Land Development: Situated near the Roberts Bank terminals, we engage in significant industrial land projects, offering opportunities for partnerships, leasing, and development.

Agricultural Development and Farming: Our agricultural lands are available for both leasing and development.

Construction Joint Ventures: We collaborate with numerous construction companies through joint ventures to promote regional growth and development.

Green Technology and Renewable Energy: We are actively exploring the green technology and renewable energy sectors.

Request for Proposal

Outlook:

Recent Industrial Developments: The recent 20.46-acre lease by Beedie at 4449 Salish Sea Way.

- Phase 1 Industrial Lands - LEASED: Approximately 149 acres, including infrastructure, developed as 60-year prepaid land leases.
- Phase 2 Industrial Lands – UNDEVELOPED: Approximately 180 acres intended for development upon completion of a strategic planning process.

Approach:

TFN seeks partners for developments that:

- Generate both short- and long-term land lease and partnership revenues.
- Provide skills, training, and contracting and employment opportunities for TFN Members and their businesses.

These activities are guided by a strategic plan developed by the Executive Council, with community input, to direct an Advisory Committee that shares our values and possesses substantial business expertise.

Advisory Board Role:

The activities of the role include the following:

- Provide real estate business advisory services.
- Review and evaluate potential opportunities alongside staff.
- Ensure that recommendations serve the best interests of TFN and its members.
- Make recommendations to the Economic Development Department, TFN Chief Administrative Officer and the board of directors of the TFN Economic Development Corporation.
- Attend Committee meetings as required (typically 4-7 meetings per year).

We seek individuals who are the right fit:

- Aligned with TFN values.
- Have experience or positive attitude working with First Nations.
- Demonstrate a strong track record of historical business performance.
- Possess access to relevant opportunities and a strong network.

Interested individuals are invited to submit a Statement of Interest along with a supporting resume.

TSAWWASSEN FIRST NATION

CALLING ALL TSAWWASSEN FIRST NATION ARTISTS

Tsawwassen First Nation (TFN) endeavors to support and encourage its artists. We are proud of our artists and want to showcase TFN artwork.

We are seeking all types of art from TFN Member Artists. All art will be a donation or a gift from the Tsawwassen First Nation Chief and Council.

We are interested in art from both established and emerging TFN Member Artists. The primary concern of TFN is that the artwork has significance and meaning for the Tsawwassen people. This is an excellent opportunity for a TFN Artist to showcase their work and gain exposure.

The art should have a description and artist biography to accompany the art piece, submitted by the artist.

If you are interested in TFN purchasing your artwork, please make an appointment with Maryanne Adams or Andrea Jacobs at 604-943-2112 for your artwork to be considered.

Delta Islanders Jr Lacrosse Club

Dear Tsawwassen First Nation,

We are writing to you on behalf of the Delta Islanders Junior Lacrosse Club, a program dedicated to the development of lacrosse players between the ages of 17 and 21. Lacrosse, often referred to as the "fastest game on two feet," holds a significant place in Canadian sports history, particularly within Indigenous communities where it is known as the "Creator's Game" or the "Medicine Game."

Our program consists of three teams: an elite junior "A" team, a developmental Junior B Tier 1 team, and a Junior B2 team. Many of our talented players have the opportunity to advance to the National Lacrosse League (NLL), the Western Lacrosse Association (WLA), and even secure university scholarships through their participation in our program.

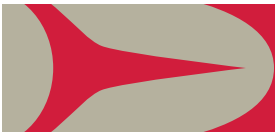

We would like to extend an invitation to the Tsawwassen First Nation community to come out and support our players by attending our games. Witness the excitement and skill of lacrosse firsthand and join us in celebrating this beloved sport. Free admission to all Tsawwassen First Nation members.

Below are the schedules for our upcoming home games:

Delta Junior A

Saturday May 25th @7PM vs. Burnaby Lakers At the Ladner Leisure Centre
Saturday Jun 8th @ 7PM vs. Poco Saints At the Ladner Leisure Centre
