TFN congratulates Tina Dion on her appointment as provincial court judge

TSAWWASSEN LANDS – Tsawwassen First Nation (TFN) would like to congratulate Tina Dion, Q.C., on her recent appointment to provincial court to serve as a judge in the City of Port Coquitlam.

Dion worked as TFN’s in-house legal counsel from 2006 to 2012, providing valuable legal advice on the development of the Treaty Final Agreement and the transition of our Nation to a self-government.

As well, Dion worked to establish TFN’s judicial systems (the Judicial Council and Office of the Prosecutor). She also provided an advisory role on the development, passage and implementation of TFN laws, regulations and policy.

Since leaving TFN, Dion has continued to support the government on several files in her capacity as a Tsawwassen-based lawyer.
